Description

A two-candle bronze candlestick with a brown and gold patina, depicting a putto, from the 19th century. A charming two-candle bronze candlestick with a brown patina accented with gold highlights, depicting a graceful full-length putto with youthful features and finely sculpted hair.The young figure, clad in a light drape around the hips, strikes a dynamic pose. His arms support two elegant, sinuous candle holders, richly adorned with plant motifs, foliage, and clusters.The finials, shaped like flared corollas, feature beautiful ornamentation of acanthus leaves and vertical fluting.The ensemble rests on a carved pedestal with naturalistic decoration, extended by a circular base of veined gray marble.The quality of the putto's modeling, the contrast of the patinas, and the richness of the
