Description

Important bronze candlestick signed A. Marionnette - Single-candle putto, 19th-century. An elegant patinated and gilded bronze candlestick depicting a putto in the round, in a graceful and lively pose. The young child holds a large, leafy, sinuous branch that forms the candleholder's arm, adorned with decorative clusters and topped with his cap.The sculpture rests on a naturalistic base and a beautiful, molded circular pedestal, embellished with a beaded frieze and four curved feet with rocaille decoration.Beautifully chiseled, expressive modeling, and superb contrast in patinas.Signed A. Marionnet, French bronze artist and foundryman (1852-1910).Period: Late 19th century.Style: Neo-Louis XV, Rocaille-inspired.Height: 42 cm. Base diameter:
