Description

A painted plaster bust depicting Marianne in the likeness of Laetitia Casta, based on the model created in 1999 by French sculptor Marie-Paule Deville-Chabrolle for the Marianne of the Year 2000.This representation of the French Republic features a female face with delicate features, wearing a Phrygian cap, with her hair pulled back and an elegantly sculpted drape.The republican motto "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" appears on her shoulder.The bust has a white finish and rests on a black rectangular pedestal.Laetitia Casta was chosen as the model for the Marianne of the Year 2000, giving rise to a contemporary representation of one of the principal symbols of the French Republic.This piece was created based on that model; its date of manufacture and edition remain to be determined.Dimensions:Total
