A Complete Series Of Six Ink Paintings On Fine Silk, amam, Dated Winter1940

2 500 EUR

Signature : Hàng liàng

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 70cm

Width : 50cm

Description

A rare set of six ink paintings on silk, depicting a scholarly series illustrating idioms and traditional tales, dating from the colonial era in Indochina.The inscriptions "Niàn jiù niàn dóng zuó" mean "made in the winter of the 29th year of the Republic of China," corresponding to the winter of 1940.The inscription reads "Yú Annàn"; Amman is the ancient historical name for the central region of Vietnam, where the artist created this work.The paintings are all marked with the artist's red seal, which serves as his official signature.The six paintings depict the facets of happiness, longevity, wealth, good fortune, health, peace, virtue, and a peaceful death.The brushwork is exceptionally refined.Each panel measures 70 cm x 50 cm; the edges are unhemmed. The silk is sound and in

Dealer

Bonheur des Dames
Antique and vintage textiles
Mobile : 0671177788

8 rue d astorg
Toulouse 31000

good condition, with a few rare, faint marks that are barely visible.This series comes from the private collection of a well-traveled physician, acquired on site in the mid-20th century.