Description

Order of Saint Michael in the form of an oval medallion, made of silver, depicting the Archangel Saint Michael slaying the devil.Saint Michael is depicted with outstretched wings, holding a flaming sword and a shield adorned with three fleurs-de-lis. The relief is particularly well-defined, with exquisite detail in the wings and figures.This medallion design, reintroduced under Louis XVIII during the Restoration, is referenced in Le Guide des ordres civils et militaires by André Souyris-Rolland, published by Préal-Supcam, page 21, entry 1, "Order of Knighthood."Condition: In excellent condition, with an antique patina. The black moiré ribbon shows signs of wear and some fraying along the edges. No hallmarks found.Dimensions: Medallion height 5.5 cm, excluding the
