Description

Pol PRESSON (20th century) - Seaside in the Estérel - French Riviera - Mediterranean Landscape - Art Deco - Oil on panelA beautiful oil on panel by Pol Presson, a painter active during the first half of the 20th century, depicting a landscape of the Estérel coastline on the French Riviera, circa 1920-1940.The composition features a cove bordered by red porphyry rocks--characteristic of the Estérel massif--dominated by a maritime pine with winding branches. In the background, the Mediterranean spreads its deep blue waters, dotted with several sailboats bearing small white sails.The artist contrasts the orange, pink, and vermilion tones of the rocks with the intense blues of the sea. The vegetation is rendered with small, thick brushstrokes, featuring heavy
