Description

A lacquered tsuishu wooden stand consisting of two creatures holding a tray with their legs, beneath which is a hook. A work of great finesse. One of the creatures' hands is missing, and several earlier restorations are visible. From the collection of the family of Lucien Gaillard (1861-1942), a master Art Nouveau jeweler who worked with Japanese artists. Japan, Edo period (19th century), 34 x 35.5 x 17.7 cm.
