Corner Cabinet With Marquetry From The Louis XV-louis XVI Transition Period, Circa 1760

1 850 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Louis XV-Louis XVI Transition Period Corner Cabinet with Marquetry, circa 1760Exquisite corner cabinet from the Louis XV-Louis XVI transitional period, inlaid with rosewood and violetwood within frames of precious woods. This corner cabinet is topped with a gray St. Anne marble slab with recesses, conforming to the triangular shape of the piece. It opens via a front panel, revealing Its front stiles feature beveled edges, embellished with simulated fluting. The lock plate and lamp base are crafted from gilded, chiseled bronze. Very beautiful butterfly-wing marquetry forming an elegant geometric design; its front is highlighted by delicate fillet moldings. It rests on beveled front legs. Beautiful mahogany wood, with a lovely patina.Parisian furniture of exceptional

Dealer

DANTAN
Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème
Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

craftsmanship, featuring refined and elegant lines. This corner cabinet combines practical utility--with its generous storage space--allowing you to display your art objects, decorative items, timepieces, or lighting fixtures. It also makes for a lovely visual statement with its high-quality marquetry. This piece, with its meticulous finishes, exemplifies the elegance of the Transition Period.Parisian craftsmanship, from the Louis XV-Louis XVI Transition Period, circa 1760, 18th century.Dimensions:Height: 93.5 cmWidth: 85 cmDepth: 51.5 cmIn Excellent Condition.We are at your disposal for any additional information.WWW.DANTAN.STORE