Description

We present this Italian side table, crafted from walnut and fir, dating from the late 19th century. Add character and elegance to your space with this extraordinary antique side table. A true work of art in cabinetmaking, it is sure to become the undisputed focal point of any room.Its eclectic design draws inspiration from the monumental Renaissance period, when finely carved elements took shape in furniture design. The round top, with its delicate fir grain, is framed by a richly carved perimeter band featuring decorative relief motifs. The top is supported by three imposing, finely carved walnut lions, which rest on a solid triangular base. This majestic detail conveys a sense of strength and elegance from times past. The wood, with its warm grain and deep brown tones, instantly warms the atmosphere of any
