Description

Tea caddy (natsume) for matcha tea used in the tea ceremony, decorated with a traditional Japanese knot called noshi. The lacquerwork is of the highest quality, with a flawless gold background that mimics metal. The traditional motifs on the noshi are exquisitely detailed. The underside and interior are finished in gindame silver lacquer. Signature under the lid in red lacquer. The noshi is a traditional ornament attached to gifts given on special occasions (weddings, births, celebrations) to express wishes for happiness, prosperity, and longevity. For the tea ceremony, the tea master selects his utensils according to the seasons, guests, and events... Artist: Namba Jinsai (1903-1976).Japan, circa 1960, 7.7 x 7.3 cm. With its original box signed by the artist.
