Large Capodimonte Covered Vase

2 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 30

Diameter : 34

Height : 77

Description

Spectacular Large Capodimonte Lidded Vase - Italian Renaissance Style - Circa 1950Magnificent and spectacular large Italian lidded vase from Capodimonte, crafted in the Italian Renaissance style, featuring extraordinary decorative richness.This imposing piece features sumptuous polychrome high-relief decoration depicting mythological scenes, figures, mascarons, flowers, and lush foliage.The vase features two large sculpted handles and a removable lid topped by a figure. The entire piece is embellished with numerous gilded highlights.The richness of its ornamentation, inspired by the Italian Renaissance and the Baroque tradition, gives it a particularly monumental and theatrical character.The base bears the Capodimonte mark--a crowned

Dealer

GALERIE DE CICCO MONACO
Empire
Tel : 0033 (0)6 08 75 41 17

La Villa, 19 Galerie Charles III
Monaco 98000

"N"--accompanied by the initials "P.R.S.," the inscription "Italy," and a production number.Origin: Italy.Period: Mid-20th century, likely around 1950-1970.Style: Italian Renaissance, Baroque-inspired.Dimensions:Total height: 77 cm.Overall width, from one handle to the other: 30 cm.Diameter: 34 cm.Condition: In perfect condition, with no reported chips, cracks, or restorations. The colors and gilding retain superb vibrancy.Price: EUR2,800Careful packaging and free shipping throughout France and Italy provided by Galerie De Cicco.Please Note - For Decorators and Interior DesignersWith its imposing dimensions, rich ornamentation, and sculptural elegance, this spectacular vase stands on its own as a true decorative centerpiece.Whether displayed on a console table, set in an architectural niche, in the lobby of a prestigious hotel, or within a home of character, it will immediately capture everyone's attention.On its own, this vase can serve as the starting point for a full-fledged decorative project, around which materials, colors, and furnishings are harmoniously arranged.Its majestic presence alone is enough to create a warm, refined atmosphere imbued with the timeless charm of grand Italian estates.A spectacular decorative piece capable of instantly infusing an interior with character, elegance, and true personality.