Description

An elegant French mirror from the first half of the 19th century, crafted from finely carved and gilded wood. The frame, with its elegant rectangular shape, stands out for the richness and intricacy of its decorative elements, embellished with dense ornamentation featuring floral motifs, vegetal festoons, racemes, and sinuous foliate volutes.The upper cornice, particularly elaborate, features a refined symmetrical composition with a central motif within an oval medallion, surrounded by elegant floral and ornamental carvings. The frame, entirely carved in relief, features a succession of plant and floral elements that flow harmoniously along the side jambs, blending seamlessly with the rich decoration of the lower band.The gilding further enhances the three-dimensional quality of the carvings and
