PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Persian Miniature, Mughal School, 18th Century: Two Women On A Terrace

850 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

Persian Miniature Mughal School 18th century Two LadiesTwo Ladies with flowers on a terraceBodycolour and gold leaf on paper, 17.3 x 12.2 cmLaid down onto a paper sheet and with passepartout mount and frame.Provenance: - Private collection, Switzerland- Dr Peter Blohm, England- Private collection, The Netherlands since 2005This Indian miniature painting depicts a classical courtly scene common in late Mughal and regional North Indian (such as Lucknow or Awadh) art from the 18th century, focusing on the theme of Radha and her confidante (sakhi) exchanging lotus flowers or a nayika (heroine) with her attendant in a palace garden.The previous owner showed this miniature to Dr Robert Skelton, who commented it was from a Ragamala series: Malasri Ragini. He further

Dealer

Red Rose Fine Art
Old Master paintings, drawings and prints, objets d'art and porcelain
Tel : 0031629514501

Gouda 2801P

commented it was executed in a provincial Mughal school in the manner of the Bikaner court style. Shipping in Europe: EUR 25