Description

Germanic Gothic Box - Late 15th / Early 16th Century, Medieval, High Middle AgesA rare box of Germanic craftsmanship, dating from the late 15th or early 16th century.This remarkable box features a wooden frame with a painted interior, here in a beautiful ivory tone, enhanced by exceptional wrought-iron hinge decorations. These adorn the lid, the front, and the sides, and are distinguished by a rich decoration of polylobed motifs and hemispherical cabochons pierced with two small holes.The piece as a whole attests to particularly meticulous ironwork, whose composition and ornamentation lend this box a remarkable decorative presence. Its uncommon design makes it a particularly interesting object for the study of small Gothic boxes of the Germanic tradition.It retains its
