Description

Superb patinated bronze sculpture - Orientalist figure - Signed by Marcel Debus. An Orientalist sculpture created in the 1950s. This magnificent bronze piece, featuring a brown patina, depicts a bearded man in Oriental attire wearing a turban; he holds a jug in one hand and a long staff in the other--a water carrier. The figure is shown in mid-stride, captured in a natural pose full of movement. The sculpture rests on a rectangular base. It bears a signature on the plinth, the founder's stamp, and the inscription "reproduction" (see photos). Height: 60 cm.
