Description

Full hunter pocket watch with chronograph, Stewart Dawson & Co., c. 1900. Stewart Dawson & Co. (1849-1932) founded his watch and jewelry company in Liverpool in 1871. It became one of the most prosperous companies in the British Empire, expanding into Australia and New Zealand. Dawson did not manufacture movements directly but imported high-quality Swiss calibers, which it then customized and marketed under its own name. This Derby model was marketed as a precision chronograph designed for athletes and equestrian enthusiasts; in fact, the name "Derby" pays homage to the famous Derby Stakes horse race. Anchor-escape movement with a column-wheel chronograph function. Start, Stop, and Reset functions operated by a push-button above the crown.Pin
