Description

Etching, drypoint, and aquatint, signed lower right, proof number 23/100. This print was created for the collection Femmes, published by Editions Artistiques Apollo, Paris."It was through printmaking, and in larger formats, that Foujita produced, technically speaking, his finest engraved works. He reached the pinnacle of his work in these series of plates published in collections, Les Enfants and Femmes. Never again would he combine the techniques of etching, drypoint, and aquatint so ingeniously." Jean Selz, in the book "Foujita," published in 1980.
