Description

Brass coin scale pan - 15th century - Medieval period, High Gothic periodA rare and antique brass coin scale pan dating from the 15th century.Triangular in shape, this pan features a remarkable marking in Gothic letters at its center, consisting of a large central "M" surrounded by an inscription running along the rim, the meaning of which has yet to be determined. This mark could correspond to the manufacturer's hallmark or a hallmark of guarantee.The pan has holes at each of its corners, evidence of its original suspension system. One of the corners has a noticeable crack, which in no way detracts from the historical interest and striking presence of this antique piece.A rare object steeped in history, it evokes the entire world of commerce and currency in the late Middle Ages. In particular, it
