Description

A stunning floor lamp attributed to Carlo Nason for Mazzega, emblematic of 20th-century Italian design.Its architectural silhouette consists of a series of rounded elements made of white opaline glass, accented by beautiful chrome-plated metal details.The upper section features an original and particularly decorative touch: an original red glass paste candleholder placed over a traditional light bulb. This element is removable, allowing the floor lamp to be kept in its all-white version as desired.A sculptural and luminous piece with a distinctly Italian character that will naturally find its place in a contemporary, vintage, or classic interior.Designer: Carlo NasonManufacturer: Mazzega, ItalyPeriod: 1970Materials: opal glass, glass paste, and chrome-plated metal.
