Art Deco Box Or Candy Jar , Boch Frères Keramis , Charles Catteau Studio , Designed By Jan Wind

750 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 12,5 cm

Width : 12,5 cm

Height : 8 cm

Description

Art Deco-era box or candy jar.Manufactured by Boch Frères Keramis in La Louvière (Belgium).Atelier de Fantaisie (decoration department) under the direction Charles Catteau from 1907 to 1948.Decor by Jan Wind (or Jean Vinde), who began working in this studio in 1924. This box and its lid play on both geometry and the softness of curved forms. Fine earthenware covered with matte glazes in vivid colors that stand out against the black background of the base or the white background of the lid.A trendy exotic bird motif on a brown escutcheon background with scrollwork, surrounded by stylized floral motifs.Inside the lid: mark W1130 for Jan Wind and design no. 1130.On the underside of the base: engraved mark F 58 p K for form no. 58 and Keramis.12.5 cm / 12.5 cm /

Dealer

Galerie Nuits de chine
Arts décoratifs, fin XIXième s. / début XXième s.
Mobile : 0644216370

Pau 64000

8 cm (4,92" / 4,92" / 3,15")0.594 kg (1,31 lb)In very good condition. Note a micro-chip indicated by an arrow in photo no. 8.Produced in smaller quantities than the vases, and often broken or heavily damaged due to frequent handling, these boxes are quite rare. This one is listed in the Charles Catteau Foundation's comprehensive catalog, which features the same model on page 372 (see photo No. 12). Fast shipping via Chronopost.Package insured at actual value and delivered with a signature required.Shipping costs of 30 euros for metropolitan France only (for other destinations, please feel free to ask for the shipping cost).