Description

Oil on panel, "Surrealist Composition" by Willy SmitzThis oil painting depicts two surrealist mythological hybrid creatures facing each other on either side of a floating chessboard, set against a barren, dreamlike landscape. It stands out against a desolate ochre plain, dotted with mountain peaks with sharp, pale outlines, beneath a sky mottled with teal and gray.Although Willy Smitz painted traditional subjects early in his career, he gradually turned to Surrealism in the 1950s. He became known for his stylized depictions of anatomy and for blending rich, bold colors with dreamlike symbolism.Signed, inscribed on the right, and dated 1955.The painting measures 121 cm wide and 64.5 cm high.The frame measures 126.5 cm wide, 2 cm deep, and 71 cm high.
