Description

Large French Art Deco chandelier attributed to Simonet FrèresImposing Art Deco chandelier attributed to Simonet Frères, Paris, made around 1930.The architectural structure, crafted in silvered bronze, chiseled and protected by a varnish, is enlivened by an elegant geometric design. Six glass globes arranged around the central body provide a harmonious contrast to the austerity of the metal structure.The long vertical lines, stylized metal elements, and perfectly balanced composition give the chandelier a particularly striking presence.With a height of 110 cm and a diameter of 80 cm, this chandelier boasts remarkable proportions and is particularly well-suited for large living rooms, dining rooms, or entryways.Attributed to Simonet Frères, ParisFrance, circa 1930Silver-plated and chiseled
