The Cosmic Woman, Jef Van Tuerenhout (1926-2006)

900 EUR

Signature : Jef Vantuerenhout

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Paper

Width : 56

Height : 74

Description

Lithograph printed on textured, gold-embossed cardstock. Unsigned. The style is easily recognizable.This work depicts a blue woman with a distant gaze, clad in golden armor, revealing her face and chest.Framed under glass.Dimensions: 74 x 56 cmJef van Tuerenhout (Mechelen, May 23, 1926 - Wenduine, March 4, 2006) was a Belgian painter, sculptor, ceramicist, printmaker, and jewelry designer.Over the course of his career, his style evolved toward Neo-Expressionism. The result was ultimately a slightly erotic and sensual style, straddling the line between surrealism and magical realism. He is sometimes referred to as the last Belgian surrealist.Beginning in 1966, he devoted himself almost exclusively to depicting the mystical feminine, rendered with an exotic, refined, and

Dealer

Niki Pholie
Decorative arts of the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries
Mobile : +32475343922

rue Chapéchêne
Neupre 4120

complex palette, bathed in light and shadow, in a sensual and magical style. He gradually created his own feminine archetype, which frequently reappears in his work: majestic, unapproachable, irresistible, enigmatic, intriguing, alluring, refined, and sensual.His works are found primarily in private collections, but also in museums, both nationally and internationally.https://nl.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jef_van_Tuerenhout