Turquoise Porcelain Lidded Bowl With Dragon Design - Gilded Bronze Mounting - 19th Century

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Antique lidded pot made of turquoise-glazed porcelain, featuring a relief design of dragons winding through stylized clouds, in the style of Chinese porcelain.The body features a continuous band of dragons with sinuous bodies, whose scales, claws, and details are finely modeled. The entire piece is covered in turquoise glaze.The vase rests on a gilded bronze rocaille-style base, consisting of an openwork foot with volutes and acanthus foliage.The neck is also adorned with a gilded bronze band featuring a foliage motif. The matching porcelain lid is topped with a gilded bronze knob depicting a bouquet of flowers and foliage.The combination of Far Eastern-inspired porcelain and a European mount evokes the 19th-century taste for Asian art objects mounted in gilded bronze.In very fine condition Total
