Description

Dimensions: 31.5 cm x23 cm x 12 cm.Beautiful early 18th-century box made from black-lacquered wood, with domed lid, keyhole, and hinges made of openwork, embossed, and gilded brass, decorated on a black background featuring "chinoiserie" motifs in gold pigments, in fairly good condition. All sides are lovely to look at.... Interior is aventurine lacquer. These boxes were used to store and powder wigs.French craftsmanship, Louis XIV or Regency periodCondition: 95% original lacquer, some wear, minor touch-ups on angles and corners, stains or lacquer flaking as expected. Since the box has seen a lot of use over the past 3centuries, I've waxed the exterior to give it a fresh, youthful look. The beautiful hinges, which are fragile and have been reattached several times, have left a
