Description

An elegant ebony box with engraved bone decorations, crafted by the Milanese cabinetmaker Ferdinando Pogliani, Italy, 19th century, in the Neo-Renaissance style.The truncated pyramid-shaped lid is decorated with an elegant, symmetrical interlacing of acanthus scrolls, grotesques, and racemes, featuring small mythical creatures enclosed in medallions, all set within a fillet and a frame of bone engraved with leaf motifs. The front and sides are also adorned with panels featuring scrolls, small flowers, and masks, in a design of great finesse. The box rests on a molded base with feet. The contrast between the deep black of the ebony and the whiteness of the bone, engraved with a burin in minute detail, produces a decorative effect of exceptional quality.On the underside of the box is the
