Description

- Gouache on paper. Hand-signed.- This delicate gouache by Pierre Pruvost captures the golden essence of those mid-century art galleries that, today, seem to exist only in the realm of dreams. It was an era when the business of beauty was imbued with the languor of an orange awning shielding the storefront; when a sophisticated fragrance lingered in the air, evoking the seductive and aristocratic name "Sévigné"; where one could hear the elegant rustle of glossy catalogs resting on wooden tables, amid the peaceful comings and goings of art dealers. Meanwhile, around the corner, pigeons peck lazily at the cobblestones, bathed in the afternoon light.- Dimensions of the artwork without frame: 64 x 48 cm / 74 x 58 cm with an exclusive, custom-made frame.
