Description

- Oil on canvas. Original canvas.- A remarkable painting from the viceregal era, dating from the transition between the 17th and 18th centuries; it depicts, with great artistry and a wealth of detail, one of the most famous colonial devotions. Our Lady of Bethlehem--whose apparition is associated with the washing ashore, on the beaches of Ecuador's central coast, of an image of the Virgin and Child from a shipwreck--is a true icon of the painting produced in the Spanish viceroyalties. This subject offers artists the opportunity to display great virtuosity in the depiction of the sumptuous jewels, ornaments, and crowns that adorn the Mother and Child.- Dimensions of the artwork without frame: 44 x 54 cm / 59 x 70.5 cm with a magnificent Sevillian-style frame.
