"low Table" Coffee Table By étienne Fermigier - J.e.r. 1968

1 000 EUR

Signature : Etienne FERMIGIER

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Metal

Diameter : 85

Height : 33

Description

A magnificent and rare "Low Table" coffee table, designed by French designer Étienne Fermigier and produced by J.E.R. around 1968.This iconic piece of late 1960s French design captivates with its sculptural aesthetic and elegant geometric construction.It consists of a superb circular smoked glass top resting on a cruciform metal base with architectural lines. The interplay of the glass's transparency and the graphic structure of the base give this table a striking presence while maintaining a sense of visual lightness.The clean, modernist design of this piece allows it to blend seamlessly into contemporary interiors as well as vintage, mid-century, or minimalist decor.Specifications:Designer: Étienne Fermigier (1932-1973)Model: Low TableManufacturer: J.E.R.Period: circa 1968Origin: FranceTop:

Dealer

Brocante de la ferme
Antiquités, vintage
Mobile : 0603680625

Ferme du gros bois RN3 chemin des processions
Claye-Souilly 77410

circular smoked glassBase: cruciform metal frameDiameter: 85 cmHeight: 33 cmCondition:In good overall condition. Note: there is a very small chip on the underside of the glass top, which is barely visible when the table is in use. This flaw is factored into the listed price.Authenticity:Model appraised and attributed to Étienne Fermigier by an auction house.A sought-after collector's item, representative of 1960s French design, ideal for enthusiasts of designer furniture and vintage designShipping: 35 euros (this price applies to Paris or the Île-de-France region; hand-delivered by us)Shipping to other regions: Contact us for a quote via a shipping carrier(item packed and loaded by us; delivery by appointment)