Description

Pair of 17th-century Piedmontese oval framesA refined pair of oval frames made in Piedmont, dating from the 17th century, featuring rich carved decoration.The frames are distinguished by an elaborate ornamental motif of volutes, leaves, and scrolls, embellished with a floral composition at the bottom and a richly carved cornice. The gilding accentuates the movement of the carving and enhances its depth.Both frames are entirely original, with period carvings and finishes.Ideal for use as mirrors or to display small paintings, prints, or miniatures, they are two decorative pieces of great character, perfect for enriching both classic and contemporary interiors with a refined antique touch.Dimensions: Exterior dimensions: 57 × 46 cm. Interior dimensions: 25.5 × 20 cm.Code:
