Description

A beautiful silver-plated octagonal timbale with beveled sides, featuring the clean, geometric lines typical of Art Deco design from the 1920s and 1930s, engraved with an interlaced "MS" monogram in the center. Weight: 145 grams.The "Boulenger" cartouche, spelled out in full on the base of the goblet, refers to the famous Parisian silversmith's workshop founded in 1810 and active until 1938. It was among the most prestigious French manufacturers and served as the official supplier to the French Navy and to major ocean liners such as the Normandie.The AB hallmark, accompanied by a crescent and stars, represents the initials of Adolphe Boulenger, the long-time director who gave his name to the firm.The hallmark reading "Blanc" with a star guarantees the quality of the base
