PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Partially Glass-fronted Sideboard From The Renaissance Period

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Height : 2.70

Depth : 0.65

Description

Two-piece Renaissance sideboard in walnut and chestnut, in the style of Hugues Sambin--featuring antique 16th-century elements.In the style of Hugues Sambin, a renowned cabinetmaker of the Renaissance period- antique 16th-century componentsA substantial two-part sideboard in walnut and chestnut, composed in part of Renaissance-era components (chest) and completed in the 19th century, in the style of Hugues Sambin, a leading figure of French Mannerism.The lower section features two panels carved in high relief with mythological subjects:Hercules fighting the Lernaean Hydra and Apollo receiving the lyre, symbols of heroic strength and the harmony of the arts--two scenes emblematic of Renaissance scholarly furniture.The upper section, featuring

Dealer

Atypik'antique

Généraliste

Mobile : 06756142474

28 route de rouen

Gace 61230

glass-paned doors, is framed by slender, sculpted caryatids, creating an ensemble with a strong architectural presence.A monumental and decorative piece, ideal for a home with character.Period: Renaissance elements (16th century); partially assembled in the 19th centuryStyle: Mannerist Renaissance, in the style of Hugues SambinWood: walnut and chestnutOrigin: FranceCondition: good condition, with normal wear and patina from ageDimensions: H 2.70_W 1.60_D 0.65Pickup on site or delivery upon request (bulky piece)