Description

This rectangular coffee table features a white marble top with deep grey veins, set on a brass apron. The tapered and fluted uprights, underlined with rings, end in ball feet and are joined by an X-shaped stretcher centered with a gadrooned radiating rosette that elegantly structures the base.This neoclassical composition -- light marble, fluted brass, X-shaped stretcher -- is characteristic of the productions of Maison Jansen, the great Parisian decorating house founded in 1880, supplier to royal courts and the most prestigious interiors. Its brass and marble coffee tables remain among the most sought-after on the market.Condition report: Good overall condition. Marble with no visible damage, with naturally contrasted veins; brass with an even gilt patina. A luminous and timeless coffee table,
