Description

This coffee table features a rectangular top of aged mirror with silvered clouding, framed by an elegant openwork brass gallery. Each corner is adorned with a finely modelled brass swan neck, an emblematic motif of the neoclassical repertoire. The tapered, ringed uprights terminate in spinning-top feet.This vocabulary -- swan necks, openwork gallery, aged mirror -- allows this table to be stylistically associated with the productions of Maison Jansen, the great Parisian decorating house founded in 1880, supplier to royal courts and the most prestigious residences; its neoclassical coffee tables of the 1940s are among the most sought-after.Condition report: Good general condition. Aged mirror with assumed charm -- its foxing is part of the aesthetic of the piece; brass with a fine, even gilt
