Description

Elegant and refined, this extraordinary Neapolitan Smith console table from the early 19th century is a masterpiece of historic cabinetmaking. Crafted from fine mahogany, it features work of the highest quality, embellished with exquisite maple wood inlays that highlight its architectural lines and decorative richness.The original and beautifully preserved Verde delle Alpi marble top adds an extra touch of luxury, harmonizing perfectly with the warmth of the mahogany and the luminosity of the inlays. The finely carved legs and the upper frieze, featuring neo-Gothic motifs and delicate wood chiseling, attest to the mastery of Neapolitan artisans and the influence of the international aesthetic of the era.A piece of great charm and rarity, ideal for enhancing classic interiors or creating an elegant contrast in
