Description

An early 19th-century Empire-style chest of drawers in walnut, from Italy, featuring a front with three drawers, the first of which protrudes slightly, adding movement to the piece. The turned and ebony-stained side columns are embellished with gilded capitals and bases, lending the piece elegance and grandeur. The plinth-style feet ensure stability and sturdiness. The gilded bronze lion-head vents add a touch of majesty and evoke the imperial iconography typical of the era. The fir wood interior completes the piece, offering durability and functionality.Product Condition:Product in its original condition. It has no defects and has not been restored.
