Description

An elegant Napoleon III-era coffee table, crafted from fine mahogany and amaranth wood, originating from France and dating to the late 19th century. The piece stands out for its refined geometric inlay work and the excellent quality of the woods used, enhanced by a warm original patina.The slender and harmonious structure features a rectangular top accompanied by three front drawers, ideal for storing small items. The body is supported by slender, fluted legs that connect the different levels of the piece, lending it a sense of lightness and elegance. The piece is completed by rich, finely chiseled gilded bronze accents that adorn the corners, uprights, and leg caps.The side table also features two practical lower shelves, one of which is contoured, enhancing its functionality without compromising
