Description

A neoclassical-style console table made of lacquered wood, featuring an opal glass top that adds an elegant and luminous touch. The band beneath the top features a grissinata finish and houses a pair of drawers finely decorated in the center with a carving depicting a vase adorned with garlands and ribbons. The side panels are embellished with rosettes, while the truncated conical legs complete the structure with understated elegance and refinement. This piece, originating from 20th-century Italy, is a perfect example of neoclassical design, ideal for spaces that call for an element of great aesthetic and artisanal value.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through
