Terry: His family settled in Geneva in 1825, when he was only seven years old. His family intended for him to go into business, but at the age of eighteen he chose to pursue an artistic education, taking classes in drawing and painting and becoming a student of Alexandre Calame.Calame asked him to reproduce his major paintings using lithography.The creator of numerous views of Switzerland and Savoy, as well as various countries he visited on his travels, his lithographs illustrating his travelogue of Haute-Savoie earned him a large silver medal at the Annecy exhibition in June 1865.
