Miniature Of A Young Woman From The Empire Period

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

A round Empire-era miniature painted in gouache depicting a young woman in a three-quarter-length bust portrait. Her expressive black eyes stand out against her fair complexion; she has a faint smile on her lips.Her curly brown hair is adorned with a tiara; she is wearing a white dress with puffed sleeves, a pleated lace collar, a dark blue sash adorned with a pretty buckle, and a chain with a medallion.This portrait, edged with chiseled gilded brass, is set in a square, blackened wooden frame.It has a hanging loop.Miniature diameter: 6.8 cmFrame: 11.5 x 11.5 cmGood condition.

Dealer

Muriel Chouffot
Tableaux, objets de vitrine
Tel : 06 10 19 54 15

114, route du cognac
Gensac-la-Pallue 16130