Description

An elegant four-panel folding screen, crafted from solid walnut and inspired by the Louis XVI style. Each panel is adorned at the top with a uniquely shaped beveled mirror, adding a touch of light and depth to the piece. The lower section is covered with a floral tapestry in soft tones, framed by scalloped braids that highlight the fabric's artisanal craftsmanship.The wood is richly carved with delicate moldings, friezes, ovals, and pearl garlands, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship. Each panel is crowned with a finely crafted ribbon bow, a decorative hallmark of the Louis XVI style.This folding screen gracefully combines functionality and decoration, making it ideal for defining a space or enriching a classic ambiance with a piece full of character.Period: Early 20th centuryThe
