Description

This magnificent Louis-Philippe-era mirror, gilded with gold leaf, features a slightly arched pediment. Its frame is distinguished by a lovely horizontal fluting pattern paired with a delicately carved beaded frieze that elegantly frames the mirror. The warm patina of the gilding attests to its authenticity and period charm. Thanks to its striking presence and generous proportions, it will look ideal placed on a mantelpiece or hung on the wall to make the space appear larger and capture the light.Period: Mid-19th centuryExcellent conditionDimensions:Height: 140 cmWidth: 101 cmDepth: 5 cmView the listing on our website: hereReference 729VDelivery available in France and internationally upon request.Viewable at the gallery by appointment.
