Description

This exceptional Empire-style dressing table is a masterpiece of French neoclassical furniture. Crafted from high-quality mahogany featuring a moiré grain and pronounced flamed hues, it stands out for the masterful cabinetmaking and the harmonious balance of its proportions.Its arched top frame holds a beautiful mirror and is flanked by two freestanding columns. The entire piece is sumptuously enhanced with chiseled and gilded bronze ornamentation. The columns are crowned by finely crafted fire pots and rest on collars carved with decorative motifs. The structure rests on a sturdy base held together by a cylindrical brace and ends in four elegantly curved saber legs that ensure perfect stability. These legs are mounted on casters for greater mobility.Period: 19th centuryIn very
