Description

A beautiful Italian Renaissance-style sideboard, crafted from solid walnut. The piece features a striking architectural design; the upper section, topped by a dentil cornice, has three drawers decorated with freehand carvings depicting intertwined ribbons and rosette knobs, also made of carved wood. The interior reveals an authentic antique construction with softwood sides, large hand-carved dovetail joints secured with forged nails.The lower section is marked by two squared-off, rusticated doors, separated by carved stiles and fitted with external iron hinges. In the center stand out two exquisite wooden handles in the form of grotesque masks, complete with hanging rings made of wrought iron and chiseled with geometric engravings. The locks are functional but not original. The piece rests on a
