Jacques Le Nantec (born In 1940) -- Small Abstract Bronze Sculpture, Signed And Dated "75"

350 EUR

Signature : Jacques Le Nantec

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 9 x 10 cm

Description

A small abstract bronze sculpture with a brown patina, composed of interlocking rounded forms. The contrast between the smooth surfaces and the striated sections emphasizes the organic nature of the composition.The work bears a hand-engraved signature, legible as "Jaques Le Nantec," accompanied by the date "75," likely referring to 1975. Attributed to Jacques Le Nantec, without a certificate of authenticity. The model and edition are not identified. No serial number or foundry mark was found.About the ArtistJacques Le Nantec, the pseudonym of Jacques Métayer, is a French sculptor born in Nantes in 1940. He discovered modeling at a very young age and presented his first works in Annecy in 1957. After studying architecture at the École nationale supérieure des beaux-arts in Paris, he devoted

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740

himself to sculpture, which he practiced primarily as a self-taught artist.Known primarily for his female figures with supple and expressive lines, he also explored abstraction. Having settled in Asia in 1983, he established a foundry in Thailand in 1990. His artistic journey combines an exploration of volume, the study of the human form, and mastery of bronze.Dimensions: approximately 9 × 10 cm; thickness 5 cm.Surface marks visible in the photographs are an integral part of the description.