Description

An elegant, tall, curved display cabinet in the Louis XV style. It rests on four arched legs adorned with finely chiseled bronze fittings accented with gold leaf. The lower section is curved and decorated with three scenes in Martin varnish: a romantic scene on the front and two scenes of cherubs on the sides. The upper display section features curved glass panels, a mirrored back, one fabric-lined wooden shelf, and three glass shelves. The gendarme's-cap-shaped pediment is topped by an ornamental openwork shell-shaped bronze.A piece from the Napoleon III period in excellent condition! Beautiful stamped varnish; the Martin varnish paintings are undamaged; and the rich ornamentation of mercury-gilded bronze is complete!
