Crocodile-style Leather Travel Clothing Trunk, Early 20th Century

3 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Leather

Length : 56 cm

Width : 54 cm

Height : 109 cm

Description

A beautiful "wardrobe-style" travel trunk dating from the early 20th century, entirely covered in brown crocodile-patterned leather with a lovely patina featuring warm tones.Its exterior features numerous metal accents: protective corners, reinforcements, clasps, and a lock, accompanied by rows of studs that highlight its contours. Horizontal slats reinforce its structure and give it a particularly decorative silhouette.It opens vertically into two sections and retains its original travel interior.One section houses a hanging compartment with wooden hangers and a securing strap; the other features five drawers lined with mauve fabric and fitted with leather handles.This meticulously crafted interior evokes the elegance of grand voyages from the early 20th century. Whether open or closed, this trunk serves

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste
Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue
Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

as a beautiful decorative piece while offering unique storage.Condition: shows signs of use, scuffs, and cracks in the upholstery, as well as wear on the leather handles, visible in the photographs.No manufacturer's mark found.Dimensions: height 109 cm, width 54 cm, depth 56 cm.We deliver and ship worldwide.Please contact us for an accurate quote.