Description

A spectacular light sculpture by Max Le Verrier (1891-1973), depicting his famous "Clarté" model, created in 1928 and now considered one of the iconic works of French Art Deco.This elegant female figure, crafted from art metal with a green patina, holds a luminous sphere made of crackled glass. The purity of the lines, the curve of the body, and the bob haircut perfectly illustrate the refined aesthetic of the 1920s and 1930s.Inspired by the ancient goddess of light, this composition harmoniously combines grace, modernity, and sculptural balance.The sculpture rests on a stepped base of veined black marble, set atop an imposing column with matching faux-marble decoration.With a total height of 175 cm, this ensemble has a remarkable presence and serves as a majestic decorative piece.Signed "M.
