Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 3,8cm

Description

Diameter: 3.8 cm, Silver weight:19 g.Pretty brooch (coinjewelry) crafted by a Victorian-era jeweler from a 1-Crown silver coin from 1830s featuring the famous motif on thereverse: St. George slaying the dragon (sculptor Benedetto Pistrucci).Jewelry work and polychrome enameling: Artisan applied colored enamels in the "cloisonné" style. The piece was finely cut with a saw to outline the figures of rider, his horset, and the dragon. On back, a silver clasp and hinge.Enamel is not flawless, as the brooch must have been worn; it shows some chips and signs of wear, particularly on red cloak and blue of background, but overall it looks very good to naked eye.Instant purchase: pay by credit card, immediate bank transfer, or PayPal. eclectic -- We are not experts, but we have been in this
