Description

Sunset, Brittany, 19th centuryBy FREDERICK WILLIAM MEYER (BRITISH, ACTIVE 1869-1922)A sweeping view of a sunset in Brittany, France, dating from the 19th century. Oil on canvas by Frederick William Meyer. A work of exceptional quality and condition, representative of the painter's oeuvre and a rare example of his coastal landscapes, ideal for display. This sweeping panorama from the beach offers a breathtaking view of the shifting colors at twilight, while a solitary figure strolls along the sand. Presented in its original antique gilded frame. Signed with the artist's monogram and dated 1887 (lower right). Meyer frequently painted the beaches of Brittany and the Pink Granite Coast.Dimensions: 122 x 81 cm (framed)
